General Information

Editorial Objective:

Brand & Sikring is a technical publication focussing on fire protection and security issues.

The magazine deals with topics within building installations, fire protection systems, security and alarms, fire inspection, maintenance and education. The publication frequently publishes news about related laws and standardization as well as publishing opinions from relevant unions and organizations.

Brand & Sikring is issued to the business professionals and technicians within the segment mentioned above. The magazine is distributed to key-people with the responsibility for security-systems in a wide array of companies, construction authorities, civil protection organizations, the police force and fire brigade as well as suppliers and contractors of fire protection- and security-systems.

The publications is fully owned by DBI and is issued quarterly in joint cooperation with TechMedia A/S and MONTAGEbureauet aps. Each issue is printed in 3600 copies, and DBI is responsible for the editorial contents of the publication.
