Using web and email addresses in advertisements:

It is possible to have clickable web and email addresses in the ads in the digital issues of the printed publication.

How to do it:

- Web and email addresses must be text only without effects of any kind
- Space must be added between web and/or email addresses and other text
- Email addresses are to be written in full and include @
- Web addresses are to be written in full and include www.
- Correctly inserted links are created and activated automatically and are therefore free of charge

TechMedia ApS disclaims responsibility for automatic links working correctly.

If an advertiser requires other types of links in advertisements, the handling fee is € 67 /each.
